A photograph of a dark green tarp tent pitched in a forest at night. A single lantern hangs from the tent's edge, casting a warm glow. In the foreground, a campfire burns brightly in a metal fire pit. To the left, a small black folding table holds a glowing lantern and some cooking items. The ground is covered in green grass and fallen leaves. The background shows the silhouettes of trees.

A man is sitting on a large, grey rock in a mountainous area. He is wearing a bright yellow sleeping bag with a black hood and a black beanie. The sleeping bag has a black zipper and a small black label with white text that reads "BENOA V450". The background shows steep, rocky mountains and a small structure with colorful prayer flags on the left. The overall scene is cold and rugged.
